

Lessening restrictions on media ownership would be disastrous for our democracy. We have already seen drastic changes in the quality and quantity of choices available to the public since the Telecommunications Act of 1996. None of these changes have been for the better. Please do not let these corporate behemoths consolidate even further. Thank you for your time and consideration.